1918, W. B. Maxwell, chapter 7, in The Mirror and the Lamp: "A very welcome, kind, useful present, that means to the parish. By the way, Hopkins, let this go no further. We don't want the tale running round that a rich person has arrived. Churchill, my dear fellow, we have such greedy sharks, and wolves in lamb's clothing."

A good place to start is the official datasheet (PDF) where you can get all the technical information you need. But I'll go over the basics here. The LM386 is an operational amplifier that has been specifically designed for use in audio applications... which means its performance is based on the assumption that it will be driving speakers. At least at some point.
